

Mad-libs work best with two people. Only one person gets to see the story at first. They ask the other person for answers to fill in the blanks. Then, the first person reads the complete story out loud, with all the second person's answers. Have fun at your museum!

My Museum Mad-Lib

Welcome to (your name) _____'s

(favorite thing) _____ Museum!

My museum is all about (favorite thing-plural*) _____.

(Friend's name) _____ gave me the first one.

Now there are (number) _____ of them in my collection.

Some are (color) _____. Some are (another color) _____.

Some are (adjective*) _____. Some are (another adjective) _____.

One looks like a (noun*) _____.

Another sounds like a (noun) _____.

It goes (make a sound) " _____".

One even smells like a (noun) _____.

The biggest one is (number) _____ inches tall.

It is (number) _____ years old and comes from (place) _____.

I had to (verb*) _____ all the way to get there.

My museum is in an old (type of building) _____.

Please come visit my museum of (favorite things) _____!

*A quick refresher: a noun is an animal, person, place or thing. A plural noun is more than one. An adjective describes a noun, like sleepy, smooth, noisy, or fast. A verb is an action word, like run, jump, eat, or giggle.
