- ¹ Listed without married name on Citizen League's List (hereafter abbreviated CLL), but Alston is on gravestone.
² Obituary lists him by his middle name Green, and his age as 74.
³ Anna and Annie Banks may or may not be same person.
⁴ Roanoke County Graveyards Through 1920 lists him as "Deacon Stewart Banks." It is presumed deacon is a title and not a name, since records of First Baptist Church list a Steward (sic) Banks as a past deacon.
⁵ Wife of Woodson Beaver
⁷ Wife of Robert Blaney.
⁸ Salem voting records give his birth year as 1921 and his profession as butcher.
⁹ Same name of two people: a girl of 8, died 1914, and a lady of 70 (grandmother?) died 1921.
¹⁰ Perhaps intended as Bradpher.
¹¹ CLL also lists a D. F. Bradpher, Sr., 1898. No record of such a death has been found, and records of Daniel Bradpher (d. 1917) shows his father's name as Henry. It is presumed D. F. Bradpher Senior may be mistaken listing for India (d. 1898).
¹² Wife of Daniel F. Bradpher
¹³ Listed twice on CLL, once spelled Daley.
¹⁴ William Minor, Lewis Spottswood, and Eleanor Louise Braxton were killed in a house fire on Water Street, Jan. 1934.
¹⁵ Listed twice on Citizen League's List.
¹⁶ Different men, buried a few years apart, with same name.
¹⁷ Listed twice on Citizen League's List, once with a question mark.
¹⁸ Spelled Larkin in Oakey's records, but Larkan on wife Annie's (Anna Nelson Burwell) gravestone. Burwell was a veteran of the Union army in the Civil War. Service records indicate service in the 127th Pennsylvania Colored Infantry and that he was wounded in the army. His presumed grave next to Annie was marked by the Sons of the Union Veterans with a commemorative marker in 2010.
¹⁹ Wife of J.R. Campbell
²⁰ Amanda and Thomas Carey and Eloise Carey Pitts listed on three sides of one grave marker.
²¹ Son of Nancy Carter
²² There is a conflict as to her age: "Roanoke County Graveyards through 1920" says only that she died in 1917. The Oakey's records say she died 3/31/17 at age 62. This could possibly be a misinterpretation of handwriting, meaning perhaps the first number was a "9" instead of a "6". This would make sense considering she was the mother of George B, who died at age 62.
²³ The mother of this unnamed infant, Cora Claytor, died four days later, but was buried in Ferrum, VA.
²⁴ Referred to in "Roanoke County Graveyards Through 1920" as "Virginia Cobb"
²⁵ Listed twice on Citizen League's List.
²⁶ Listed twice on CLL, once spelled Devenport.
²⁷ Listed twice on CLL, once spelled Devenport.
²⁸ William, William Jr. and Willie may be one man, two men, or three men of the same name.
²⁹ Wife of Matthew S. Felton
³⁰ Obit notes "buried with Masonic rites."
³¹ According to tombstone, a member of the Virginia Baptist Association
³² "Roanoke County Graveyards Through 1920" lists birth year as 1839
³³ World War I veteran with a military marker.
³⁵ Wife of Moses.
³⁶ May have been known as "Sallie" according to descendant.
³⁷ Husband of Sarah Hale.
³⁸ Gravestone erected by C.L Hatcher.

- ³⁹ John Henry Harris, his wife Lillie Moore Harris, and infant Cerita Nicole Harris were mentioned by Dr. Wayne Harris in his remarks for the dedication of the cemetery 8/27/06. None were on the list or on the plaques. They are Dr. Harris' great-grand parents and niece, respectively.
- ⁴⁰ "Roanoke County Graveyards Through 1820" records her as Thelma F. Hill, daughter of S.H. and Fannie
- ⁴¹ Wife of David Fielding Hunt
- ⁴² Gravestone: "Beloved Mom Jennie."
- ⁴³ Wife of Reverend Moses E. Johnson
- ⁴⁴ Listed twice on Citizen League's List.
- ⁴⁵ Spelled Kyle on Citizen League's List, but Kile on gravestone. Kile was a veteran of the 45th United States Colored Infantry in the Civil War, and received a military headstone accordingly. According to the records of the War Department, he died January 1, 1936, and the grave was requested by Mrs. Vina Kile, presumably his widow.
- ⁴⁶ Different Laws.
- ⁴⁷ Occupation listed as gravedigger and residence as the cemetery.
- ⁴⁸ Rufus Mays may or may not be the same person as R. A. Mays.
- ⁴⁹ Gravestone lists her as a veteran of the Korean War.
- ⁵⁰ Wife of Thomas Moore
- ⁵¹ Last name difficult to read in funeral register; may not be Newbill.
- ⁵² Perhaps Luke Nowlin, a black member of Salem's early 20th Century fire department.
- ⁵³ Henry Nowlin was hanged for murder in Fincastle. His last request was to be buried next to his (unnamed) sister in Salem, according to a Roanoke Times article (11/21/91) on the execution. This burial is thus presumed to be in EHN. Henry Hale, presumably one of the two listed above, was a stepfather.
- ⁵⁴ Listed twice on Citizen League's List.
- ⁵⁵ Roanoke County Graveyards Through 1920 provides the birth and death dates and notes "Wife of M.S. Pate," but spells her name as "Loamy." Observation of the grave marker indicates the other spelling. Oakey's death record lists her age as 72, but this does not agree with an 1838 birth.
- ⁵⁶ A World War I army veteran who served as gravedigger for EHN in the mid-20th Century.
- ⁵⁷ Son of Jerry and Susan Price.
- ⁵⁸ Daughter of Jerry and Susan Price, sister of William H. Price.
- ⁵⁹ Wife of William Russ.
- ⁶⁰ Aluminum marker found under tree adjacent to cemetery; doesn't appear to be on actual grave.
- ⁶¹ A World War II veteran who died on active duty and who was buried with full military honors, according to Henry Bellinger, who attended the funeral as a boy in 1945.
- ⁶² Perhaps a nickname for Charles Henry Scruggs above?
- ⁶³ "Roanoke County Graveyards Through 1920" notes "Mother" inscribed on tombstone
- ⁶⁴ Almost certainly Emma Moore Smith, wife of Rev. Walker Smith.
- ⁶⁵ Name apparently left off of R. J. Warren's list inadvertently.
- ⁶⁶ "Roanoke County Graveyards Through 1920" says she died at age 27
- ⁶⁷ Possibly the same person as J. Madison Smith above.
- ⁶⁸ Mother, Rebecca Smith, provided info to Museum June 2006.
- ⁶⁹ Early pastor of First Baptist Church.
- ⁷⁰ May be duplicate for one of the other William Smiths above?
- ⁷¹ According to "Roanoke County Graveyards through 1920", he died 1/1/1918 at age 22
- ⁷² Listed on Spurlock Memorial marker, placed 2010 by Leonard Spurlock family.
- ⁷³ Daughter of Nathaniel and Lula M. Spurlock.
- ⁷⁴ Probably a duplication of the previous name; if so should not read "Mrs."
- ⁷⁵ Listed on Spurlock Memorial marker, placed 2010 by Leonard Spurlock family. Separate entry from Nathaniel Spurlock.
- ⁷⁶ This is presumed to be Susan Braxton Spurlock, wife of Moses, born about 1848, but it may be another woman of the same name. No further info other than her listing on the CLL has been found.
- ⁷⁷ Listed on Spurlock Memorial as Louise V.
- ⁷⁸ Two different women.
- ⁷⁹ Two women buried two months apart.
- ⁸⁰ Tuning spelled Tunnina on CLL.
- ⁸¹ Son of Henry and Catherine Wade. Poem on tombstone: "Sleep on, dear child, thy work is done. The mortal pang is past. Jesus has come and borne thee home, beyond the stormy blast."

⁸² Two different women of the same name.

⁸³ Susan Watkins was murdered by her husband Charles in April 1891. Newspaper accounts of the case indicate that she was buried by John M. Oakey in the “colored cemetery” after her brother (or the man Oakey assumed to be her brother) in Chicago denied knowing her and refused her remains. See Salem Times-Register 4/17/1891 in museum collection.

⁸⁴ Small concrete marker next to Charlie White has initials H. V. W.

⁸⁵ Citizen League’s List gives first name as Anna.

⁸⁶ Wife of Moses Willis

⁸⁷ Spelled thus on the CLL, this is likely a typographical error for Dealy Wilson, and refers to Ardelia Wilson, wife of William R. Wilson. Info from John H. Branson and Leonard Spurlock, July 2008.

⁸⁸ Son of Alexander Wilson

⁸⁹ Wife of Alexander Wilson

⁹⁰ Probably the well-known music teacher who in the 1930s chaired a committee to raise money for repairs and maintenance of East Hill North.
